- I. Welcome, approval and commentary re Nominating Committee, and notice of upcoming election of officers in May. Linda Chase and Gretchen Cuddy have asked to join nominating chair Peter Mjos on the committee. The role is one of recruitment only (not vetting or excluding). All members are encouraged to serve as officers.
- II. Approval of Minutes for March 2019.
- III. Crime & Safety Report. (12 minutes)
- IV. Assembly Report(s).
- V. Legislative Reports.
- VI. Treasurer's Report.
- VII. FCC Report.
- VIII. Presentations and Discussion, as follows:
  - A. Midtown Congestion Relief. Committee members Dave Evans and Bob Butera will present a resolution for vote. See attached.
  - B. Chester Creek Bridge. Peter Mjos and Steve Cleary are expected to present a resolution for vote. The resolution (attached) expresses support for a bridge across Chester Creek below Maplewood.
  - C. Liquor License pending before the Assembly. Dick Traini suggested we take note that there is a liquor license pending for an Oaken Keg in the Midtown Mall (formerly the Sears Mall). No proposed resolution is presented as yet.
  - D. Announcements.
    1. Representatives of Midtown Farmers Market, currently located in the Midtown Mall, have asked to present, subject to time availability.
