Wendy Lindskoog, Mavis Hancock, and Caroline Higgins, At-Large Board Members
Bryan Talbott-Clark, FCC Delegate; Susanne DiPietro and Thomas Pease, Past Co-Presidents
P.O. Box 100018 Anchorage, AK 99510-0018

AGENDA – April 15, 2004 Government Hill Elementary School Library

*Revised
April '04*

Introductions. President Stephanie Kesler, presiding.

Approval of March 18th Minutes/Treasurer's Report.

Legislative/Assembly Report.

Government Hill/Ship Creek Work Group. Steve Gerlek and Wendy Lindskoog, Co-Chairmen, will update the council on the progress of this group.

Flint Hills Briefing. The new owners of the Williams tank farm will be at the meeting to introduce themselves. This will also be an opportunity to begin a positive dialogue with our new neighbors and welcome them to the Community Council.

Anchorage Road Coalition. Discussion on a proposed resolution supporting Context Sensitive Design Principles for Anchorage roads based on the March presentation by Ann Flister on a plan to improve Anchorage roads through citizen participation and education.

Neighborhood Planning/Vision. Thomas Pease will continue the March discussion on developing a strategy for a positive neighborhood vision.

North Pointe (Richardson Vista) Fire Update. Hear an update on the most recent apartment fire at North Pointe, March 31, 2004.

CIP Update. Stu Hall will provide an update on the MOA's CIP for 2005-2009, including the proposed Gambell-Ingra Extension.

Air Force Update – An update on our April 9 meeting with Col. Tirevold.

Nominations to Elmendorf Community Environmental Board (CAB) – Steve Gerlek will be stepping down from the Elmendorf CAB (formerly Restoration Advisory Board) when his term expires this spring in order to focus on other Neighborhood issues, and we need a replacement. They meet twice a year at the Marriott Residence Inn in mid town 7 to 9pm and deal with all manor of environmental issues related to the Air Base. There are about 20 people on the board representing a broad cross section of Anchorage. Thank you Steve for your years of service!

Neighborhood Concerns/Issues. An opportunity for Council members to share ideas on matters and concerns not on the agenda, or to bring up new issues.

Next meeting is Thursday, May 20, 2004
